

Alondra Park Oil, Factory Protest Loses

By a vote of 3 to 2, County Supervisors rejected an urgency ordinance which would have temporarily zoned the Alondra Park area, R-4 (unlimited residence) and prohibited business and manufacturing in residentially developed sections.

Supervisor Raymond V. Darby made a motion to adopt the urgency measure as a means of protecting home owners of the vicinity from both oil drilling operations and the establishment of manufacturing plants next to their dwellings.

The ordinance had been suggested by the County Regional Planning Commission and, as prepared by the county council's office, it banned oil drilling within 300 feet of dwellings. In his motion, Darby increased the distance to 500 feet.

However, residents of the area voiced vigorous protest against the ordinance because it did not bar oil drilling altogether.

Darby warned the protesters that unless the urgency measure was passed, oil companies would be able to drill in the area by the simple process of obtaining a permit, which, without the proposed ordinance, the board would have to grant.

Sherfey, Jackson, Bartlett, Mrs. Fordice Elected

office of City Clerk Bartlett and the sidewalk and office of the Torrance Herald seeking the latest news on the biennial city election.

Interest was far and wide, with many long-distance calls being received, and newspaper men and women calling from throughout the area, seeking the results of the election.

The most distant interested party was Mrs. Harriett Leech, City Treasurer, who was not a candidate for re-election. She called from her Arizona desert quarters where she has been resting for several weeks, and said she was happy over the result of the election. Mrs. Leech will return to Torrance soon, to join her family and friends here, she told the Torrance Herald.

Councilman-elect Sherfey, in a statement to the Herald, said that "I want to thank the people who supported me for the important office of City Council and I pledge my cooperation to all groups. I will do the best job that I can as City Councilman and will do it honestly."

Councilman-elect Jackson said: "I want to take advantage of this opportunity to express my grateful appreciation to my many friends for their support and to reassure them and the rest of the community that my best efforts will be put forth in office to give the City of Torrance the government it wants and deserves."

An analysis of the vote cast shows that Councilman-elect Sherfey carried 12 of the city's 17 precincts.

The vote cast by precincts is printed elsewhere in this edition.

Those carried by Sherfey are Nos. 1, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 13, 14, 15 and 17.

Smith carried No. 2, his own, No. 10, at 23720 Narbonne ave., No. 12, in Walteria, and 16, in Walteria.

O'Toole carried one precinct, No. 3, at 716 Border ave.

City Clerk Bartlett carried all precincts of Torrance by sound majorities.

For City Treasurer, Mrs. Fordice carried 14 precincts, with McGuire carrying one, No. 1, and Ms. Slonecker two, No. 12 and No. 16, both in Walteria. The pay raise proposition carried only three precincts, Nos. 1, 2 and 12.
